Subject.

Petition Reg^{d} No 2599 of the 17th May 1903, from Mr Zillhardt, pensioned Manager of the office of the Inspector Genl of Prisons, in Mysore, praying for enhancement of his pension.

Mr Zillhardt was drawing at the time of his retirement in July 1900, a salary of Rs 80/- per mensem. But as at that time he had not put in 5 years' service on Rs 80/-, he was granted a pension of Rs 36-8-4, calculated at $\frac{30}{60}$ ths of the previous average Emoluments. He even then prayed that he might be granted the full pension viz Rs 40/-, but it was ruled that a special treatment of this kind was out of the question. The petitioner again repeats the same prayer, namely, to raise his pension to Rs 40/- and to pay what may be due to him at this rate from the date of his retirement, deducting the actual pension he is now getting.

Genl & Revue Deptt

Sir,

In reply to your Endorsement No G 2814 dated 4th December 1903, stating that it is not possible to continue to me the Palace pension granted to my father, I beg that the amount of my full pension viz Rs 40 to which I am justly entitled to, be granted with the arrears withheld Rs 3-7-8 from 21st July 1900. I have already stated in my former communications to the Dewan that it was no fault of mine for retiring from the service. I unfortunately fell ill with a severe pain in my chest and was strongly advised by my Medical Adviser to proceed to Madras for a change, which I accordingly did, but on applying for 3 months leave I was rejected, I then applied for furlough for one year (X) This was also denied me, so that I had no alternative but to retire from the service. I therefore now beg that you will be pleased to lay this before the Dewan for his kind and favorable consideration.

(X) Date of his retirement

I am
Sir
Your obediently
W. D. Gilchrist

Retired Manager, Office of the Insp. Genl. of Prisons in Mysore
